

ADR Reporting & Documentation

Suspected Adverse Drug Reaction (ADR) Report :

A. Patient Information :

Patient Initials: RM

Age at the time of event: 32 years

Sex: Male

Weight: 65 kg

B. Suspected Adverse Reaction :

Date of Reaction Onset: 03/03/2026

Date of Recovery: 06/03/2026

Description of Reaction: Generalized itching and skin rashes over the chest following initiation of Amoxicillin.

C. Suspected Medications :

Drug Name: Amoxicillin

Dose & Frequency: 500 mg, TID (Three times daily)

Route: Oral

Therapy Dates: 01/03/2026 to 03/03/2026

Indication / Reason for Use: Acute Bacterial Sinusitis

Reaction Abated on Stopping Drug (De-challenge): Yes

Re-challenge (Reintroduction): Not Applicable (Drug was not re-administered)

D. Additional Medical Details :

Concomitant Medications: Not Applicable

Relevant Lab Tests: Not Applicable

Medical / Allergy History: No prior history of drug allergy, diabetes, or hypertension.

Seriousness of Reaction: Non-serious (Type B ADR, unpredictable/hypersensitivity, non-life-threatening). MP4

Outcome: Recovered completely.

E. Reporter :

Name and Professional Address: Rahul Mukherjee, Behala 14 no, Kolkata-700035

Pin: 700035

E-mail: rahulmukherjee7567@gmail.com

Contact No: 9334567821

Occupation: Business

Date of this report: 08/03/2026